

Archives Lanark

cordially invites you to attend our

AGM and Open House

February 15, 2020 from 1:30-4pm

1920 Drummond Concession 7, Drummond Centre

Join us to learn more about Archives Lanark, meet our Board of Directors, find out what we've been up to this past year and what we have planned for 2020!

Guest Speaker:

Ron W. Shaw, Local Author

Ron will delve into the question of when the first female vote was cast in Ontario. Elections Canada and multiple histories of politics will tell you that the first woman to vote in, what is now Ontario, did so in the general election of 1844. Ron W. Shaw will explain how, a quarter of a century before those female votes were documented in Halton, Ellen McGrath-Simons (1774-1861) of Drummond Township cast her vote at the Perth Military Settlement in the legislative assembly of July 1820.

The AGM will occur from 1:30-2:30

Open House to follow.

Light refreshments will be provided.

Free admission.

Donations gratefully appreciated.
